Veteran and Woman Owned Firm of Business Advisors Is Awarded GSA Contract

Scottsdale, Arizona – This week Corcoran Associates joined the General Services Administration (GSA) Schedule with the award of Contract GS-10F-0017R. “Any company that has experienced the proposal submission process to GSA, is well aware of the effort required to capture the award and we want to congratulate our team on their accomplishment” said Jerry Corcoran, Managing Partner for Corcoran Associates.

For those more familiar with commercial contracts a little definition. GSA schedules establish "pre-approved" government prices for your products and services and they are quick and easy for any federal agency to use. “Our government clients are looking for qualified companies that can support their real time requirements” said Kristin Corcoran, Partner for Corcoran Associates.

Over the last ten years, GSA Schedules have become the preferred method of purchasing within the Federal Government and are the best closing mechanisms for small-to medium-sized businesses.
